6th Annual Bikes & Bagels this Friday, May 13th

SEATTLE– In celebration of National Bike Everywhere Month, Commute Seattle is hosting its 6th annual Bikes & Bagels event from 7-9 a.m. on Friday, May 13 in McGraw Square (Fifth Avenue and Stewart St in Downtown Seattle). Bike commuters are encouraged to stop by for free Caffe Vita coffee, wood-fired bagels from Eltana, free bike tune-ups and raffle prizes. We will be joined by our partners at Seattle Department of Transportation, Pronto Bikeshare, Velo Bike Shop and Zipcar Seattle.

Commute Seattle has partnered with Seattle Met to offer attendees the opportunity to pose with their friends and colleagues in our onsite photobooth. Photos will be featured in The Met Pages July Issue and online.

“Bike month is going great so far. The weather is nice and the Alaskan Way Viaduct closure has helped to encouraged more riders to join in,” said Commute Seattle Executive Director Jessica Szlag. “Bikes & Bagels is a great way to thank people for choosing an active and carbon free way to get to work each day.”
